

Gallows supports

Gallows supports are the inexpensive alternative to portal support structures. They are produced to individual height specifications and can be quickly set up with little installation effort. There are single-sided and double-sided (T-support) gallows to which the crane tracks are attached.

Auxiliary girders

Auxiliary girders provide additional hanging positions for the suspension of the HB crane installation. They are fixed directly between building girders, enabling even large distances to be bridged.